

PICTORIAL REVIEW OF THE NEWS

PHOTO BY BUCK

PROMINENT AT D. A. R. CONVENTION.

Miss Elise Dandridge, of the District of Columbia, is Personal Page to Mrs. William Cumming Story, President General of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

WREAK HAVOC IN RANKS OF RUSSIANS IN CARPATHIANS.

The Austrians are making excellent use of their great 30-centimeter Skoda guns in dropping bombs into the trenches of the Czar's troops on the battle line in the Carpathian mountains. The Skoda gun is facetiously called "Busy Bertha's little sister."

PHOTO BY BUCK

WINS PRAISE FOR HER WORK.

Mrs. Joseph Ensley, National Charity Officer of the D. A. R., has won much commendation.

PHOTO BY UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

PART OF WAR'S HARVEST.

Jean M. Cayolle, a French trooper, lost both of his legs in action at Champagne.

© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

HOUSTED VILLISTAS AWAITING THE WORD TO ADVANCE.

Soldiers in the Army of Gen. Pancho Villa are seen here at the Las Rusias Ranch near Matamoros awaiting orders to make one of their daring dashes into the teeth of the Carranzistas.

© UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

WILL DEFEND HONOR OF HARVARD.

The crew which will meet the Middies April 24—Left to right: Kreger, Coxswain; Lund, Cabot, Parson, Middendorf, Harwood, Stebbins, Morgan, Murray (captain).

PHOTO BY UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

WEDS WYOMING RANCHER.

Mrs. M. D. Richards, formerly Miss Helen Field Gillette, of Hudson, N. Y., Grandniece of Late Marshall Field, will live on Wyoming Ranch after her honeymoon.